NO EXTRA PAY.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL LAYS DOWN THE LAW.

The following correspondence speaks for itself:

Hon. R. M. BEATTY,

Attorney General of Nevada,

Dear Sir:

Am I authorized by law to draw warrants in payment of per diem of members of the Legislature or attaches thereof, in excess of fifty (50) days for the Seventeenth session.

Respectfully yours

C. A. LA GRANE.

State Controller.

Hon. C. A. LA GRANE,

State Controller of Nevada.

Dear Sir:

Answering your query "Am I authorized by law to draw warrants in payment of per diem members of the Legislature or attaches thereof in excess of fifty days service of the Seventeenth Session," I answer:

The question embraces two distinct propositions, each wholly controlled by a different section of the same Article of the Constitution of the State of Nevada, and must be considered accordingly. Thus divided, the matter presents, 1st: Are the officers and employees of the Legislature of Nevada, at its seventeenth session, entitled to compensation for their services rendered as such after the fiftieth day of said session? This necessitates the construction and interpretation of Sec. 58, Art. IV. of said Constitution in the light of existing Statutes.

There was, and is no law limiting their salary or compensation, except as to the same amount per day, of each, and that as fixed by Act of Jan. 31, 1893, stat. 1893, p. 130, and in force at the time of their election or appointment. They were all elected or appointed for the whole of the session, and an extension by law of the term of such session cannot effect them. Therefore, they are entitled to full pay, and if the legislative appropriation for said session is sufficient, I hereby advise the State Controller to draw his warrant for the payment of and the State Treasurer to pay each of them the sums to which he or she may be entitled.

2nd. Are the Senators and members of the Assembly entitled to compensation for services rendered by them as such, subsequent to the fiftieth day of said session?

This involves a construction and interpretation of Sec. 33, Art. IV. of said Constitution and the Statute laws relating to the subject, in force at the time of the election of said Senators and members of the Assembly, and those since enacted. By this section "the members of the Legislature shall receive for their services a compensation, to be fixed by law, but no increase of such compensation shall take effect during the term for which the members of either house shall have been elected." The said session had been fixed by law at fifty days duration, but by repeal, this time was extended. The compensation of members had been fixed at eight dollars per day. Stat. Nev. 1893, p. 73, approved March 2, 1893, and of the election of the present members, except "hold-over" Senators, the compensation of Senators and members of the Assembly, was permitted to a maximum of four hundred dollars and mileage for each regular session. I therefore advise you, that by no possible legal process could the compensation of members for the present session be "increased" to any sum in excess of $400.00 for each Senator or member of the Assembly.

The State Controller should therefore refuse to draw any warrant in favor of any Senator or member of the Assembly for any sum or amount in excess of a total of $400.00 for all of the services rendered by him as a member of the Legislature during the seventeenth regular session of said legislature. And it necessarily follows that the State Treasurer would not legally pay any sum or amount so in excess. If either of said State officers disregards this advice, he will lay himself and his official bondsmen legally liable to the State for any sum or amount paid contrary to such advice.

I have the honor to be very respectfully yours,

ROBT. M. BEATTY,

Atty. Genl. of Nevada.

Contingent Expenses.

The following report of the committee on contingent expenses, will be of interest to those who are claiming that the contingent expenses were larger than in any previous session.

Due to our Sergeant at Arms, Hon. H. P. Flannery, for his economy in the matter of expenses for this session.

A. J. NEWMAN.

Chairman of Committee of Contin-gent Expenses for 17th. session of the Nevada Legislature.

The following resolution accompanying the report, was read and adopted: Resolved, That the State Controller is hereby authorized to draw his warrants in favor of H. P. Flannery Sergeant at Arms of the Assembly for the sum of ($188.75) one hundred and eighty eight dollars and seventy five cents, and the State Treasurer is hereby directed to pay the same.

The Closing Hours.

The Senate merely closed up the bag ends of its business in the evening adjourning from time to time to buzz each other. The Keeley Cure bill was knocked out. It is said that two men voted against it under a misrepresentation.

In the Assembly the Third House held carnival with Major Dennis in the Chair, and there was a general round of hilarity until midnight. Lem Allen was given a gold headed cane, and made the usual speech of acknowledgment. As the clock crawled along toward midnight, there was a general scurrying around the corridors by persons who had bills to be signed by the proper authorities, in order that they might reach the Governor before the Legislature adjourned. At midnight the gavel fell in both ends of the building, and the crowd dispersed.
